

GEPS/PEPS VERSION 2.2

Release Notes

New Feature – Peps Link to Biodiversity Data

Environmental Terms and Biodiversity Module together provide the industry's most comprehensive environmental risk screening tool. IHS have brought all this information into one place for you, delivering insight and analysis through PEPS.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the PEPS application. The address bar shows the URL: https://speps.ihsenergy.com - IHS Inc. - Energy - Microsoft Internet Explorer. The page title is "PEPS - Nationally Designated Areas". The interface includes a search bar, a "Back To PEPS" button, and a "Biodiversity Menu" with expandable sections for Region / Country, Area Name, GIS Name, Designate, and IUCN Category. A table of search results is displayed, listing various regions and countries with their respective area names and designations. The table has columns for Region, Country, Area Name / Link to UNEP-WCMC, GIS Name, ISO3, Latitude, Longitude, and Designate. The results are filtered to show items from the Far East region of Afghanistan. At the bottom of the table, it indicates "Found: 102863 Item(s)" and "Displaying: 1 - 30". There are buttons for "Check All", "Uncheck All", "Save Search", "Export", and "Export All". The footer of the page contains the copyright notice: "Copyright © 2007 IHS Inc., its subsidiary and affiliated companies, all rights reserved." The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the start button, several icons, and the system tray with the time 15:24.

New Feature – Breaking News Ticker on Home Page

GEPS breaking news ticker, many customers have asked us to include this feature to keep them right up to date with activity. It displays the most recently added reports. Clicking on the ticker item takes the user directly to the report.

The screenshot displays the GEPS/PEPS 2.2 web application interface. The browser address bar shows the URL: <https://pgeps.ihsenergy.com>. The page title is "The Source for Critical Information and Insight™". The navigation menu includes: Home, Default View, Search Results, Cross Product, My Profile, My Reports, My History, and Oil Price. The main content area is titled "Global E&P Service (GEPS) Reports" and features a "Breaking News" section. A red oval highlights the "Breaking News" section, which displays the latest report: "Latest: (22 Oct 2007) Sinopec-Jiangnan - (Jianping 7) - Gas pay zones - Sichuan Basin". Below this, there are sections for "Daily Alert headlines", "Europe", "Norway", "United Kingdom", "Sub-Saharan Africa", and "Angola". The right sidebar contains "International Oil Letter" and "Resources". The footer includes the copyright notice: "Copyright © 2007 IHS Inc., its subsidiary and affiliated companies, all rights reserved."

Enhancement – Transactions and Awards Analysis

Through a client request, columns entitled Average US$/% and US$/% acquired were inserted into certain exploration tables (summary and global statistics) for the PEPS modules, Transactions Analysis and Awards Analysis. While this was accomplished through a client request, the opportunity was also taken to enhance the table headings and nomenclature in the relevant tables.

Award	Contract	Date	Basin	Contract Holder	Award Value		Firm Ex
